The Right Stuff: Diversity Resources to Address the NEW NAEYC Standards

Camille Catlett
FPG Child Development Institute
UNC-Chapel Hill
919.966.6635
camille.catlett@unc.edu

NEW NAEYC standards

http://www.naeyc.org/positionstatements/ppp

Associate degree programs – required to submit using new standards in March 2013

Initial/advanced degree programs – required to use new standards in Fall 2012

All around resources

http://www.fpg.unc.edu/~scpp/crosswalks/

http://www.fpg.unc.edu/~scpp/nat_allies/na_archive.cfm Head Start resources

Early Childhood Learning and Knowledge Center http://eclkc.ohs.acf.hhs.gov/hslc

Webcasts and Multimedia/Cinema http://eclkc.ohs.acf.hhs.gov/hslc/resourcepgs/cinema

Head Start Training and Technical Assistance System http://eclkc.ohs.acf.hhs.gov/hslc/tta-system

A fabulous resource

Anti-Bias Education for Young Children and Ourselves
• Louise Derman-Sparks & Julie Olsen Edwards
• NAEYC Item #: 254
Dual language learning: What does it take?

• Ensuring positive outcomes for children
• Strengthening program planning and professional development
• Enhancing family involvement
• Building community resources

http://community.fpg.unc.edu/connect-modules/learners/module-4

Family-professional partnerships
This toolkit includes background information on reaching out to Hispanic parents, four sample workshops, videos in Spanish and English, and bilingual handouts.

Clips for practicing observation, documentation, and assessment skills
CARA’s Kit

Creating Adaptations for Routines and Activities - adaptations to increase children’s engagement and participation in classroom activities and routines.

Adaptations Help All Children

Adaptations allow teachers to do the same things that they would do with all children—facilitate their participation in activities and routines. Adaptations can be used to:

- Make situations better for a particular child.
- Improve situations for the entire group.
http://csefel.vanderbilt.edu/

Book Nook
Using Books to Support Social Emotional Development

http://csefel.vanderbilt.edu/resources/strategies.html#booknook