

Becoming PQAS Approved for Pediatric CPR/First Aid

To be eligible to apply to become PQAS approved for Pediatric CPR/First Aid, you must hold a certification by at least one of the seven Pediatric CPR/First Aid curricula that are approved in meeting the childcare licensing regulation.

- American Heart Association
- American Red Cross
- American Safety and Health Institute
- PedFACTs
- MedicFirst
- National Safety Council
- Tri State in Philadelphia

To apply for Pediatric CPR/First Aid PQAS approval, login at www.papdregistry.org, then check the Apply to become a PQAS Instructor box and complete each section. All required documents should be attached within the Education tab and the Instructor tab.

Standardized Professional Development Instructor Requirements

Standardized Professional Development Instructors are only able to provide specific approved Professional Development to Early Childhood Educator.

Education Tab:

- Career Pathway: Entry Level
- CPR, First Aid, Fire Safety Requirements section: Attach up-to-date Pediatric First Aid/CPR Instructor Card

Trainer Documentation: attach within the Trainer Documentation section on the Instructor tab

- Curriculum Vitae or Resume- Must include: Evidence to support training experience within the last five years AND Brief summary of previous training experience including number of years and topics delivered

Payment: $0.00 (this will be waived when you submit your application)

If you do not have a PD Registry profile, please visit <https://www.pakeys.org/get-professional-development/professional-development/professionals-resources/> for directions on how to create a new profile.

If you have any questions, email PQAS@pakeys.org.