

Top Three New Year's Resolution for Early Childhood Education Professionals

1

Consider your next educational accomplishments in Early Childhood Education.

If you're looking to get a Director or School Age Professional Credential, and Associates Degree, Bachelors Degree, PK-4 Cert Level I & II, or CDA, financial assistance may be available. Check out the Rising STARS Tuition Assistance \(RSTA\), Teacher Education and Compensation Helps Early Childhood® Pennsylvania Scholarship \(T.E.A.C.H.\), and Early Childhood Education Professional Development Organizations \(ECE PDOs\) for options that may provide assistance with tuition and fees, book reimbursement, facility support, travel stipends, and more. Visit the Pennsylvania Key website to explore your options.

2

Plan and register for professional development.

There are more than 6,220 approved courses available in Pennsylvania's PD Registry. Search for and find your next professional development opportunities in the PD Registry and the Early Intervention Technical Assistance Portal. Visit the PD Registry and EITA Portal to find and register for your next PD course.

3

Access and utilize all the tools available to support the important work you do!

There are several sources of support for Pennsylvania's early childhood educators, all ready with support to help. Your regional Certification Office, Early Learning Resource Center, Infant Early Childhood Mental Health Consultation Program, and PQAS Instructors and Professional Learning Organizations are ready to provide assistance.

BONUS

Bonus Resolution!

Sign up for monthly PA Early Ed News! When you subscribe, you'll get the latest news and information about early learning delivered directly to your in-box.

Pennsylvania
Office of Child Development and Early Learning