HOW STATUSES ARE USED BY APPLICATION
PENNSYLVANIA QUALITY ASSURANCE SYSTEM (PQAS)

APPLIED
An application has been submitted and is awaiting initial review or verification of required materials.

READY FOR PROCESSING
An application has been submitted and is awaiting initial review or verification of required materials.

MATERIALS RECEIVED
All required materials for the application have been received, and the application is ready to be sent out for review.

INCOMPLETE
An application is considered incomplete when required information, documentation, or supporting materials have not been provided or submitted correctly. Incomplete applications cannot be reviewed or processed until all missing items are received and the application meets the stated submission requirements.

REVIEW
The application is under review, and a decision has not yet been finalized.

ON HOLD
The application review has been temporarily paused due to pending information.

AWAITING PRINT
The application has been approved and is pending the final step of generating and printing the official certificate or documentation.

QUALIFICATIONS NOT MET
The application has been reviewed and denied because the applicant does not meet the required qualifications or criteria.

CURRENT
The application or credential is active, valid, and up to date.

EXPIRED
The application, credential, or approval has lapsed and is no longer active or valid.

Learn more at pakeys.org/pqas.